AT THE ODEON.

THE GREATEST LIVING CURIOSITY IN THE WORLD! For three days only! Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—June 22d, 24th, and 25th.

Mr. Almon, who has visited many of the principal southern cities, has been pronounced by all scientific and medical gentlemen who have seen him, the greatest curiosity, the most remarkable lusus naturae, of which they have had any knowledge.

Some of the peculiarities of Mr. Almon's physical formation are, that one hand resembles the class of a bird, the other resembles the class of a crab. He has parts of roun LEGS, with some portion of the FIFTH—with only three tost in all. The remainder of his body is in good form, and he enjoys excelient health.

It is worth the while of any person, anxious to see a most remarkable freak of nature in the formation of Mr. Almon's limbs, to pay him a call. He was born in the county of Rowan, in North Carolina, where his parents still reside. He is now 22 years of age, and remarkably active and vigorous.

Mr. Almon will be exhibited at the Opeon, corner of 414

In order to insure a quiet, unannoyed promenade, he adopts, for the present, the following course: Patrons visiting the Garden, when illuminated, will procure a check at the ticket office, near the gate, for which 12½ cents is required, and which check, on other than Gain nights, is redeemable in confectionaries for the same amount. Thankful for patronage thus far, he hopes to deserve a

Georgetown, June 24-12 m. On taking a survey of our town I find that there are quite a number of private as well as public improvements going on. AMERICAN ENERGY .- Nothing can more forcibly illustrate the indomitable energy and inexhaustible resources of mind and action in our countrymen, than is contained in some of the accounts connected with the late dreadful disaster at San Francisco. Among other sufferers by the conflagration was a watchmaker from Boston, whose shop was in the centre of the fire, and who rushed to the rescue of his property. He filled his trunk with his goods, and escaped to the street, where he was cut off by the flames, abandoned his property through dire necessity, and was dreadfully burned himself. He was taken to the hospital, where lying on his bed, he dictated a letter to his correspondent in Boston, ordering goods for his trade to the amount of $5,000, while appliances were making to draw the fire from his scorched skin. Bankers in San Francisco lent to him their credit, and offered to him a place of business; and, if he shall survive, he will be living example of the energy and perseverance

Another instance was that of a gentleman who had recently erected and moved into a splendid brick store in a different quarter of the city from his lodgings. When the fire broke out he was very active in assisting those immediately in danger, but after the flames had raged for some time he went see how his wn store was likely to stand close upon his premises, and he saw at a glance that they could not be saved. Without stopping to see his large property consumed, he returned to his residence, and in a few hours had com pleted the draft of another and more expensive edifice, to be erected on the site of the old one. In two days he had men at work clearing away the rubbish and preparing to put up the new building with all possible despatch. [Boston Courier.

A STORY OF A ROBIN. - The New Haven Paladium tells a story of a robin who flew up to a Mr. Bromham, of that place, while engaged in a particular part of his garden, and exhibited the greatest excitement and agitation. Mr. B. surprised at the conduct of the bird, followed it to a tree in another part of the garden, where he knew was a robin's nest. On approaching he found the female bird equally agitated, and discovered a young robin sitting on the fence, and a cat below intently watching it, and wait ng to pounce upon it, if it should the cat away, when the old birds came to the assistance of the young one, and encouraged it to fly, which it did, and finally reached its nest on the tree, to the great satisfaction of its

REAL ESTATE IN VIRGINIA FOR SALE.

THE subscriber has not yet disposed of his real estate in Prince William county, Virginia. He is still desirous of selling, and will do so on accommodating terms. It consists, first, of 947 acres of land, in from two and a half to four miles of Brentsville, the county town, four-teen miles of Occoquan, thirty miles of Alexandria, and from four to five miles of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, which will be completed to Brentsville this year. This land is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, rye, cate, and grass. It is a mixture of the red and arey soil, and admirably adapted to improvement by the use of clover, plaster, guano, &c. It is heavily timbered, and finely watered, having lasting springs of the purest water. It is capable of being divided into five or six good sized farms, and with tolerable buildings and small orchards on four of them. I will sell it all in a body to a company, or will divide it to suit purchasers, at prices ranging, according to quality, at from $3 to $5 per acre. I will only require one-fourth of the purchase money in hand, and the balance I will divide in three annual payments, to bear interest from the date of sale, to be secured on the property. Land is rapidly rising in value in the neighborhood, and I offer great inducements now, as I wish to turn my attention to other pursuits.

Secondly. A square of buildings in the town of Brentsville, suitable for a carriage-maker, wheelwright, or blacksmith, with two dwelling-houses, kitchens, blacksmith, carriage, and wheelwright shops, and other necessary buildings. $1600 is now my price for this property—on the same terms as the land. It is within a mile and three-quarters of the railroad.

Thirdly. Nine and a quarter acres of land on the turn-stream and a payer terms are not destilise. ing the tree, in its efforts to fly. Mr. B. drove | REAL ESTATE IN VIRGINIA FOR SALE.

the same terms as the land. It is within a mile and three-quarters of the railroad.

Thirdly. Nine and a quarter acres of land on the turn-pike, just above Buckland, on which are a good dweiling-house, a large wheelwright shop, kitchen, stable, dairy, and smoke-house. It would make a good tavern stand, and the shop a good stable. For this property I will take $500.—on the same terms.

Fifthly. A lease lot in Haymarket, with a pretty good house, kitchen, a large shoemaker's shop, stable, &c. The buildings are a little out of order. The lease may run for ten or tweive years. For this I will take $400.

Sixthly. A valuable farm in Alleghany county, Maryland, containing 200 acres, within eight miles of the National Road, and ten to tweive miles of the Baltimore and Obie Railroad. This farm is in a thriving neighborhood, is heavily timbered, has a good and never-failing stream of water running through it, and several mill-seats; abounds in iron ore and coal; has a fine sugar maple orchard on it, and a mineral spring, which I think equal to the White Sulphur or Bedford, and has now some forty or fifty acres of the land cleared. The soil is not surpassed by any in the country. I am disposed now to take $4 per acre for it. Mr. Abraham Steel, who lives near it, will show it to any one wishing to purchase. The property in Prince William county, Virginia, will be shown by Eppa Honton, esq., who is authorized to sell; or by Mr. Edwin W. Latimer, or Mr. Robert Hodgkin. I shall be in Brenteville about the middle of May, and will, in person, show the property to any one wishing to purchase.

It is all still for sale, except the Brentsville property and the farm in Alleghamy county, Maryland. On the balance of his real estate, which he is anxious to seil before the lst of July, the liberal credit of three years will be given. Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research is must have cost you to obtain so many fine Illustrations while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON, LANGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Luc-nemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexiwords, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without as figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universall given to it over all similar works, render its recommends tion superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than it-predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work predecessors of the darange has hitherto received.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

WING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the naxions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderatel In these periodicals are contained the views, moderatel though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greate parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Black wood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edie burgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment of the property of the stable of the stabl Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establish ment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chaimers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," hough reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an experior of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition
